PART G - PENALTY WARNING

If your household gets Food and Nutrition Services (FNS), it must follow the rules listed below. We may choose your household for a Federal or State review sometime after you receive your food assistance to make sure you were eligible for disaster aid.

- DO NOT give false information or hide information to get or to continue to get Food and Nutrition Services.
- DO NOT give or sell your benefits or authorization documents to anyone not authorized to use them.
- DO NOT alter any document to get Food and Nutrition Services you are not entitled to.
- DO NOT use Food and Nutrition Services to buy unauthorized items such as alcohol or tobacco.
- DO NOT use another household's Food and Nutrition Services or authorization document for your household. If you intentionally break any of the rules above you may not be able to get any more Food and Nutrition Services permanently, and may be fined up to $250,000 and/or jailed up to 20 years.

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies. offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits.
